

Emma has been dancing for 15 years. Many of those years were spent at Charisma Studio where she enjoyed discovering and developing her passion for dance. In high school she was the president of Springville High School's dance company. After graduating and teaching at Charisma for a year she left for an eighteen month service mission to China. Now she is attending BYU as a dance major and is excited to continue sharing the joy dance has brought to her life!